

---

The Columbus Dispatch

---

THURSDAY, JULY 19, 2001

---

Thursday, July 19, 2001 ■

LORAIN LIGHTHOUSE RESTORATION

Paul M. Walsh / The Morning Journal

Roofers install red-slate shingles on the roof of the Lorain Lighthouse, a Lake Erie landmark. The roofers, from Durable Slate in Columbus, were replacing the original asbestos shingles so restoration can begin on the interior of the lighthouse, which has stood at the entrance to the Lorain harbor since 1917.